GOLF GOSPEL TRUTHS.

How an Edict Against Com-mercializing American Golf Was Enforced.

BY STRAIGHT DRIVE.

Naturally, there was much talk over the status of the United States Golf Association's championship of 1916 on the championship of 1915 on the disregard of the tenets of purity that should govern the new and rapidly growing recreation displayed by representatives of sporting goods stores in exploiting their wares on the links, even while figuring as competitors in the tournaments. The men brought most prominently into the limelight by the articles, Charles S. Cox and Harry Roy Sweeney, were both popular at their respective clubs, which brought an angle into the discussions that has been reproduced in the case of Francis Outmet et al., in the present year at Boston.

The action of the United States Golf Association was most mildly expressed but most positive and far-reaching in the stamping out of the practices its committee had decided to be injurious to the highest standard of amateurism. It was an enforcement by rule of the Sir Galahad spirit that should include all golfers to keep the game a pure and fair recreation for men who earn their living in a business or profession and is of more than casual interest in the uplife of humanity than any play—or sport—may ever become.

In brief, as instance revealed in the cases to which most attention has been directed, if the golf goods salesman was persona grata at his club it gave to him the right to play as an amateur in the club's own competition. Also, provided the consent of the club was given, such a player could be played, had been granted, such a player might be one of the team in an interclub match. But the entry of persons having this direct interest in the commercial side of golf was made anathema at open tournaments and championship play.

The situation is a golfing application of an old saw, which states one may not hunt with the pack and run with the hare.

The second annual tennis championship of the Home Club got under way last Saturday with sixty-six players entered from many of the government departments. Matches will be played Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the newest municipal courts in Henry Park, at 6th and B streets northwest, according to J. B. Beadle of the tournament committee. Many of the players of the Home Club have been showing excellent form this year and the matches are expected to bring forth some good tennis.

Wheat singled in the second and Mowrey sacrificed. Cutshaw beat out a bunt, and when he stole second, Burns drew wild to catch Wheat napping off third, the latter scoring. Olson sent Cutshaw home with a double.

QUALIFICATION TIE TO BE PLAYED TOMORROW

Lightweight Champion Can Corral $25,000 by Meeting Leonard in Buenos Aires.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Billy Gibson, American representative of the Buenos Aires government, which will promote a big boxing carnival in July, yesterday offered Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion of the world, $25,000 to defend his title in a twenty-round bout with Benny Leonard in the Argentine metropolis. Gibson will leave Saturday for Buenos Aires, and expects to have a reply from Welsh by Thursday. He also hopes to have the signatures of some of the best boxers in the country to contracts calling for their appearance in Buenos Aires during the boxing carnival.

Gibson had made big offers to Charley White of Chicago, Mike Gibbons, Kid Lewis, Jack Britton and a number of other good boxers and said last night that many of them would make the trip to South America. Owing to the pressure of his business in connection with the Buenos Aires bouts Gibson has been compelled to resign as matchmaker of the Stadium Athletic Club, in the Manhattan Opera House. Announcement has been made by the club that his place will be taken by Scott Mantel, manager of Johnny Dundee and Leo P. Flynn.

MISS STIRLING LEADS FIELD.
Makes an 88 in Qualifying Round of Southern Championship.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 2.—The sixth annual championship of the Women's Southern Golf Association began yesterday morning with an eight-teen-hole qualifying round on the links of the Chattanooga Golf and Country Club. Miss Alexia W. Stirling of Atlanta, the present champion, began the defense of her title by leading the field with an 88.

Although she was not at her best, the eighteen-year-old titleholder played steady golf all the way and was the only one of the entire field who made the round in less than 90. Her nearest rival was four strokes away. The woman golfers intend to find the Chattanooga course hard, for only five of them were under the 100 mark and 108 got into the championship division, Miss Watkins, the president of the association, squeezing in with that score.
Mrs. Thomas Paine of Atlanta, who was runner up to Miss Stirling last year at Birmingham, was well down the list with a score of 106. The scorecard follows:

Championship division—Miss Stirling, 88; Mrs.
House, 92; Mrs. Smith, 95; Mrs. Shaw, 96; Mrs. Gault, 97; Mrs. Martin, 98; Mrs. Jones, 99; Mrs. Miller, 100; Mrs. Wilson, 101; Mrs. Harris, 102; Mrs. Craig, 103; Mrs.
Paine, 104; Mrs. Clark, 105; Mrs. Marshall, 107; Miss Watkins, 108.

Another Golf Trophy.
Women's Western Association Adds Par Prize to Annual Tourney.

CHICAGO, May 2.—The Women's Western Golf Association has donated a new trophy which will be known as the Par trophy. It will replace the Crafts W.
Higgins prize, which for many years has been emblematic of the team championship of the Women's Western Golf Association. The Par trophy will be played for September 1 under the same rules as were used in the Higgins prize. Individual prizes will be given the winner of the Par trophy each year.

The Los Angeles, Midolthian and Exmouth teams in the last two of the second which have each won the Higgins contest twice, will play for permanent possession of the trophy September 1.

EASTERN MEETS COLUMBIA.
Manassas Collegians Will Play Tennis Here Thursday.

What promises to be a most interesting tennis match will take place at Columbia Country Club Thursday afternoon, when a team from Eastern College, Manassas, Va., will meet a Columbia team. A. C. Williams and O. W.
Smith of the visiting team will meet Eddie Doyle and Brock in singles and C. Williams and A. Landis will play against the same two local players in doubles.

Yale College team has a splendid record of matches won, and the expectation should be well worth seeing.
The match will start at 4 o'clock.

HAKE-UP IN YALE CREWS.
Coach Makes Several Changes in First and Second Boats.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 2.—Significant changes were made in the Yale varsity boat yesterday afternoon by coach Nicklaus. Fitzpatrick, at 6 in the second boat, was put in at 6 in the first boat.

Coach Meyer, who rowed at 5 in the varsity last year and up to 6 in the varsity for two years, was sent to the second crew. Kozisky was changed from 3 to 4 in the second boat. In a three-minute row test on the Housatonic river after these changes the second eight was ahead half a length at the finish. The changes are experimental. Payne Whitney, '98, was the practice.

Pitcher Alloworth, who pitched a remarkably good game for Connie Mack during the training season, has been moved over to Larry Mattern's New York team for development.

Quimet Will Refuse Cash Prizes.
BOSTON, May 2.—Francis Outmet, who says he is driving a longer ball than ever before and in fact playing better golf, expects to play in the Massachusetts open championship tournament to be held later in the season at Brae Burn. He said yesterday that he would not accept a cash prize, as he had no intention of becoming a professional or of playing for one.
